John Daniel

John Daniel A Commerce Graduate was into Marketing and Logistics. Coming from a family with agricultural background, has always been actively involved in the field of environment and conservation. Moved from a place where there was 24/7 water supply and landed in one which faced immense water scarcity, brought in the seriousness of the issue. Bangalore has changed drastically over the past three decades, lesser trees and more concrete. On 22 March 2005, UN declared a Water Decade between 2005 and 2015. We took a pledge to concentrate on water awareness program, implementation, conservation, re-use and impactful solutions for the entire decade. Our mission is to educate and encourage as many individuals and groups to come together to save water by harvesting rain water, recharging ground-water and reusing treated water as much as possible under the banner "Water for Life". Founder and Proprietor of "Great Bear Promotions" - Great Bear, the constellation (Saptha Rishi Mandala), which apparently guided travelers, to identify the North Star and assert the direction they were taking. GBP now thrives to show people the directions that we have all lost. GBP works with AIJ (Activity Implemented Jointly) partners under the UN framework "Clean Technology Initiative". Our company has been involved with Karnataka State Council for Science and Technology, IISc to promote water conservation. GBP went commercial only in 2007. In the past we have successfully completed a few STP installations using DEWATS and Nano Technology. Our efforts and simple methods have been featured on The Hindu, Deccan Herald, Bangalore Mirror, DNA, India Water Portal, etc.

Water for life' - The UN declared Water Decade March 2005 - 2015 and our participation in this noble mission and observation. Access to water as a basic human right, a financial obligation, a social necessity and a critical environmental resource is well recognized by Government, Public, Private Sector, Civil Society, etc.. GBP, in its small way has been working in this mission in Bengaluru and other parts of the country such as Northern, Central and Eastern India. Needless to say it already has a presence in the Southern part of the Country as well. GBP has a plan of expanding its operation on a National scale in collaboration with Regional Channel partners who will be activated in due course of time.

Our activity: Total Water Management Consultation, Turnkey projects flooding solutions, water filters, STP, ETP. DM Plants, centralised RO Plants in apartments, promote awareness, Creating Green Clubs to promote water conservation in Educational Institutions for building awareness and campaign for water concern is an integral part of GBP's thrust area. We promote filtered rainwater for storing, reuse and ground water recharge. The quantity of water that can be harvested from a 1000sqft roof area during an average of 60 days rainfall per annum is approximately one lakh liters. We undertake projects for Industries, Commercial buildings, Resorts, Educational Institutions, Residential complexes, Hospitals, Golf Courses, Farm lands, IT parks, Recreational spaces, RWH Theme Parks, etc.. These projects have higher capability/capacity of conserving rainwater, recharging groundwater and reusing of treated water which will result in a bigger impact. We provide end to end complete water solutions covering Rainwater, Sewage treatment, Centralized RO/UV/Copper/Alkaline drinking water systems with TDS/mineral data with an AMC, Re-use of RO reject water, and Recharging of Ground-water. Challenges: Implementation of RWH, STP or recharge structures just to satisfy government norms to get plans sanctioned or to get an approved water connection from the local authority.

Solution: Scientific methods implemented will be impactful and will also have lesser maintenance process. It will also result in a good ROI and implementers will benefit by being water positive on the long run.
